

ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS

- Unemployment in Fulton County as of May 2022: 3.6% (lowest in ~30 yrs)
- Health care & social assistance, retail trade, transportation & warehousing, and manufacturing together make up 2/3 of private sector employment
- Largest manufacturing industries are leather products and food processing
- Availability of water and wastewater processing capacity and proximity to major markets are among the assets that attract companies to the area

ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS

- Many of the largest employers are in one of County's business and industrial parks
- Approximately 4,300 jobs in the City of Groversville
  - Government / public schools – 18%
  - Retail trade – 18%
  - Manufacturing – 17%
- 25% of those employed in the city are also Groversville residents
- Of those who commute into Groversville for work, 35% reside elsewhere in Fulton County and 11% are from Montgomery County

Major Employers in Fulton County

Lexington Center (ARC Fulton Co. Chapter)

WalMart Food Distribution Center

Nathan Littauer Hospital

FAGE USA

Benjamin Moore Paints

DHL Logistics

EPIMED International

Taylor Made Products

Townsend Leather

Pioneer Windows

